

Dear Filmmaker,

The Center for Spiritual Living Morristown invites you to participate in its fourth annual AWAKEN! International Spiritual Film Festival in Morristown, NJ, USA.

Two nights and two days of films, discussions, and live events will make for a full and uplifting weekend, which is heavily advertised. Less than 40 miles from New York City, we draw hundreds of viewers from northern and central New Jersey, as this is the only international spiritual film festival in the region.

The festival will run March 2-4, 2012. We are seeking features, documentaries, and short films. An Audience Choice award will be given in each category.

Our Center's vision is "awakening and honoring the splendor of our divine nature." The Film Festival mission is to present spiritual films, which we have defined as:

"Films that inspire, that awaken joy, love and compassion within us, that enlighten and challenge us. They have the potential to transform our lives. Spiritual films make us more connected to ourselves, to each other, and to the universe. They remind us that simple choices can change the world, and that each of us has the power to make a difference."

With this in mind, we eagerly invite you to submit a film for our consideration.

The process for submission will be as follows:

1. Films in DVD format should be sent to Gail Mardfin, c/o Center for Spiritual Living, 331 Mount Kemble Ave., Morristown NJ 07960 USA as soon as possible. They must be received no later than December 1, 2011. There is no entry fee.
2. The following information must be supplied on the accompanying form:

  - c) Title of film
  - d) What year film was completed

  - g) Running time of film
  - h) Has film been shown in USA before? In New Jersey before?

3. Each film will be reviewed by the AWAKEN! viewing committee and if your film fits with our mission and can be worked into the festival schedule this year, we will contact you with all the details. Decisions will be made by February 1, 2012.
4. Films not selected will be returned if you provide return postage for the original mailer.

We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience and know that this will be a fantastic event to showcase spiritual films!
